

BRYAN LIFSEY

- Volunteer for Seniors v. Crime in the Sumter County office.
 - Has served as a Senior Sleuth since 2006.
 - Is the office manager for the Seniors v. Crime office in The Villages.
 - Helped set up a Spanish language outreach program in his region.
 - Translated all Senior v. Crime forms into Spanish and made them available on the website.
 - Routinely spends five days a week volunteering at the Senior v. Crime office and works on the weekends presenting to groups.

- Is the chairman of the Board of Supervisors for The Villages' Community Development District Two.

- Served 37 years in the U.S. Army.
 - Including 15 years on active duty with assignments in Vietnam and Korea, and 22 years in the reserves before retiring in 2005.