Florida Attorney General's Office News Release

Attorney General James Uthmeier Joins Governor DeSantis to discuss the 2020 Census and Congressional Apportionment

LAKE WORTH, Fla.—Today, Attorney General James Uthmeier joined Governor DeSantis at Palm Beach State College to discuss the 2020 Census and Congressional Apportionment.

"Florida was robbed by the left's multi-year effort to rig the 2020 Census, and Floridians didn't get the representation they deserve in Congress," said Attorney General James Uthmeier. "President Trump called for a new Census, and I'm ready to work with Governor DeSantis to bring the president solutions and get it done."
