Florida Attorney General's Office News Release

Attorney General James Uthmeier Sends Demand to The New York Times Corporate Board of Directors

Attorney General James Uthmeier sent a letter to the New York Times for the State Board of Administration of Florida, acting on behalf of the Florida Retirement System Trust Fund. The letter is a shareholder's demand to inspect the books and records of the company.

The demand arises from the Company's repeated publication of factually unsupported content and from the perceived absence of any control and required supervision by the Company's Board of Directors (the "Board") over the editorial standards the Company itself has adopted to prevent it.
